

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Our creator and parent of all—all creation carries the signs of your love, desire, and purpose by which you are known. We clear a special place for you—for your love, desire, and purpose in our hearts and lives.

Your Kingdom come, your will be done.
As in heaven, so on earth.

May your desire and purpose become as real in our hearts and lives as they are in yours.

Give us the bread of our need this day.

Help us see that everything we need for this day, this moment, is contained in this day and this moment and nowhere else.

Forgive us our debts,
just as we forgive our debtors.

Release us from all that binds us and keeps us from your deepest purpose—your Kingdom. And remind us that it is in our own releasing of the pain and resentment we hold toward others that we find our own release in you.

Do not let us enter into temptation.
Deliver us from evil.

Do not let us be diverted from our true purpose, and deliver us from the inability to become complete and one with you and each other.

For yours is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever...Amen.
